As a matter of fact many a Muslim scholars had been compiling their Tafaseers on Morphological and Syntactical grounds. Just because complete understanding of Qura'nic verses impossible without the help of these two.

So the researcher chose two books, one from old period and other from present time to compare their styles in dealing with Morphological and Syntactical Citations.

I have divided my topic into Abstract, Preface, five chapters, Bibliography and list of contents.

First chapter will talk about Morphological and Syntactical Citations in Tafaseer Ul Quran and it has three sub-chapters.

Second chapter will introduce Halabi, Shaikhly and their books and it has three sub-chapters.

Third chapter will consist of Morphological and Syntactical Citations in Al-Dur-Al-Masoon and it has three sub-chapters.

Fourth chapter will consist of Morphological and Syntactical Citations in Balaghat-Al-Quran and it has three sub-chapters.

Fifth chapter will deal with comparison between Al-Dur-Al-Masoon and Balaghat-Al-Quran and it has three sub-chapters.
