Abstract

The study is conducted to analyze and address history of Bahawalpur City and its surroundings that once constituted a major portion of economy in the ancient times. The study is conducted for that to generate the proper discuss on the contribution in national integration of Pakistan. That study will enhance the facts and figures of the Bahawalpur state which helps the development of Pakistan by his integration. The movements were for the independence of the Sub-continent and political occurrence in that movements, did highly impact the people of Bahawalpur but only as a point of information's collected then as some original local political activity. Objective behind conducting this study is to acquire an understanding of contribution of Bahawalpur State in progressing Pakistan. Nawab of Bahawalpur was very loyal with Pakistan and they showed their determination to makes Pakistan developed country. Through this study the role of Nawab will be enhanced and benefits discussing which Bahawalpur State gifted to Pakistan. The research would largely rely on historical technique of data collection using texts written by historians, and lastly contradictory statements, myths and realities would be brought in account to reach the more accurate results about the state of Bahawalpur and its high contribution in national integration for the newly created country Pakistan. Conclusively speaking, that the contribution of the Bahawalpur State in the national integration of Pakistan was very valid and high rated. But now a days there is no progress and development in Bahawalpur.
